Mr. and Mrs. Carter were visiting at Phil's Mason's.

One of our bachelor friends would like to take out a patent to manufacture hats of Wood Fibre. He claims some heads would feel more at home in them.

Did you hear that Old Bill was dead?

No. What did he die of? Oh, he had lumbago. They rubbed his back with alcohol and he broke his neck trying to lick it off.

Lloyd George don't seem to enjoy his Irish stew.

At WOODFORD ON FRIDAY

A necktie social and dance will be held at Woodford School on Friday, April 8th. Ladies bring ties, supper will be provided at the school.

Everybody welcome. Proceeds are for the benefit of the scholars of the Woodford school.

Mr. George Gipson is the organizer of this social and dance.

SURPRISE PARTY

A very pleasant time was spent at the Martin Erickson home on the evening preceding their auction sale. Twelve sleighs loaded with guests drew up in the yard, and very soon a welcome surprise party was having a good time.

Chauvin W. I. Notes

The regular monthly meeting of the Chauvin W. I. will be held in the Rest Room on Wednesday, April 6th at 8 p.m.

The programme for the year which has been drawn up by a committee of three will be laid before the meeting.

We wish to extend our grateful thanks to all who in any way assisted in making the "Daffy" Party a success. To those who took part in the programme and to each guest individually who by cracked approval made those in charge feel that what's absurd and ludicrous is acceptable once a year at least.

W. L. A. Notes

The regular meeting of the Westminster Ladies Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. C. C. McKechnie at 3 p.m. Thursday, April 14th.

What Happened To Jones At Edgerton

The three-act play, "Why Smith Left Home," presented at Edgerton on Saturday evening, March 26th, by members of the Edgerton Dramatic Society was an unequalled success.

The hall in which the play was presented, was taxed to its full capacity to provide accommodation for the large crowd which gathered to witness the efforts of the players who are all to be congratulated on the splendid showing made.

The play itself provided full scope for the exercise of the histronic talents undoubtedly possessed by the members of the Dramatic Society, and if the numerous comments uttered by those who saw the play are to be accepted as final, no excuses need be offered by the amateur actors.

While comment regarding the performance of individual players is perhaps superfluous, we feel that we are safe in stating that Miss Jean Smith, in the character of Lavinia Daly, Queen of the Society of Irish Dames, and Secretary of the Cook Ladies' Union, and Mr. William Spornitz, in the character of Count Von Guggerheim, made a great hit with the crowd.

Possibly the extremely humorous character of these parts appealed especially. But we make this statement reservedly, as we can only judge by the comments heard by us, personally. So far as we know, any other member of the cast is entitled to just as much praise as the above.

In any case, an appreciative audience was entirely pleased with the results of the efforts put forth by the players, and the members of that audience showed their appreciation by giving vent to loud and vociferous applause at many points in the progress of the play.

Apart from a few mishaps, such as one of the members of the sterner sex losing the pants of his dress suit, the play ran as smoothly as one could wish. The presentation was not marred by a single "faux pas".

It is hoped that the play may be presented in Chauvin at an early date and we feel confident that the citizens of that town will avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing the play on that occasion.

Will love in death, just the same.

Notes from North East Ribstone Council Meeting: Minutes

There are still several complaints about cattle roaming at large in Artland. Are the municipality seeing that their by-law is being rigidly enforced. We doubt it.

The question of educating the young people of Artland is still occupying the minds of the elders. It is to be hoped that some practical scheme will be formulated by which the important question may be satisfactorily arranged.

Lars Swanson certainly means to turn over some ground this year. Judging from the size of the implements he has lately been purchasing.

The Secretary of the Brady Sunday School is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Gladstone Ellwood, (who, it will be remembered, organized the Rural Sunday Schools of Saskatchewan last year), in which he regrets his inability to accept the invitation extended to him to take charge of this field this year. Mr. Wood is still endeavouring to have a man sent to the Brady district, and is in great hopes of being successful. He also writes upon those who worked so untiringly last year to keep the school open. I shall

Alberta Dragoons

There was a good turn out to the parade on the 21st of March at the I.O.O.F. Hall; and the drills are showing remarkable progress through out. There were a few spectators present, who enjoyed the parade from the gallery.

The Chauvin troop now numbers 59

The next parade is scheduled, according to the daily orders in the Post Office for Thursday the 7th, at 7 p.m. at the Fair grounds. All members are expected to be present. Should the weather not be favorable, the parade will take place in the I.O.O.F. Hall.

Chauvin G.W.V.A.

The G. W. V. A. Held a meeting after the Dragoons Parade, during which some seven Honorary Members were enroled. Members of the 19th A.D., being now eligible for honorary membership. This promises to be quite a great combination.

Comrade Herbert presented his report as Door-keeper at the recent concert, the proceeds being $125.50; which with all expenses and accounts deducted, would leave a net surplus for the funds of $50.00. Comrade Beattie moved that the report be accepted with thanks. Carried.

Comrade Pitman moved a vote of thanks be tendered to the Chauvin Chronicle, to all those who had assisted us in the carrying through of the concert, especially those who were not members of the G.W.V.A.; much credit was due to Mrs. Freeman for her assistance during the practice and at the concert; the young ladies who took their turn in helping so cheerfully, not forgetting the Colonels; and the printer for his donation. Carried.

Major H. V. Stratton V.C. thanked the Chauvin Branch on behalf of the 1st Troop "C" Squadron A.D. and assured the meeting that same A.D. would be appreciated.

Comrade Herbert reported that he had attended the meeting of the Agricultural Society and informed them that his amendment was lost. Secretary was instructed to write to the Department in this regard, stating how the vote had been taken, and that this council was opposed to such a scheme at this time. Moved by Mr. McCluskey.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY GRANT
Mrs. Armour and Mrs. Miller attended as committee from the Chauvin Agricultural Society to interview the Council as to the extra amount provisionally promised as a grant last year. They stated that they would take up the matter of a grant for this year later.

Mr. Dumont moved that, owing to the financial conditions prevailing in the district at the present time, no grant be made. Mr. Dumont later withdrew the motion.

After full discussion, Reeve Ferguson suggested that the committee leave the matter over for the present. (Continued on inner page)

Hay Question Solved

The great question of hay or a suitable substitute has been solved for the farmer of the west by the introduction of what is known as California hay, which has the advantage of being the nearest to a balanced ration of any hay product introduced. This useful compromise may be raised by agriculturists on their farms in the Chauvin district. The mixture should be sown in the following quantities per acre: Oats, 1 bushel; spring rye, $\frac{1}{2}$ bushel; field pea, $\frac{1}{2}$ a bushel; five pounds of either golden common hog millet; 2 pounds dwarf Escarpe rape.

This will produce from two to five tons per acre, and as rations for working teams and farm stock generally, the mixture is equal to or better than the best timothy and clover hay. An additional advantage of seeding this "California hay" is that after the crop has been harvested the spring rye and raps will furnish excellent pasture for the remainder of the fall.

Travel Will Prove Good Investment

In every person's life at some time or other there comes a feeling of outer exhaustion, or as some say "Fed Up" with a general lack of interest in their everyday surroundings. Hard work is as a rule blamed for this condition, and little is done to remedy it until too late and the family physician is called. Work may be to a certain extent responsible for this condition, but the chief reason is the lack of a change, a relaxation of the mind. Get away for a few weeks, vacation, see new sights and how the rest of the world live. Enjoy a change of climate. There are thousands of interesting places in Canada which may be enjoyed either winter or summer, and within easy reach via the Canadian Pacific Railway.

A trip at any season of the year sends you back with renewed vigor, broader views and much wiser from the knowledge gained. A postal card to any Canadian Pacific Agent will bring you literature and information desired.

Travel Logic

The farmer's mule had just balked in the road when the country doctor came by. The farmer asked the physician if he could give him something to start the mule. The doctor said he could, and, reaching down into his medicine case, gave the animal some powder. The mule snatched his tail, tossed his head and started on a mad gallop down the road. The farmer looked first at the dying animal, and then at the doctor.

"How much did that medicine cost, doc?" he asked.

"Oh, about fifteen cents," said the physician.

"Well, give me a quarter's worth, quick!" and he swallowed it. "I've got to catch that mule."

Millinery Opening

Miss Coleman, of Wainwright will visit Chauvin Tuesday, Wednesday, April 12th and 13th, and will hold a Millinery Opening, in Roy's where she will have a choice display of spring hats for ladies and children. All the newest styles in colors and materials and all made prettily priced.

A dainty selection of ready-to-wear models. Any shape and style made to order.

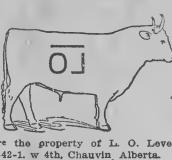

Spring's Sale Spot

The warm winds have removed the white mantle from the bosom of old mother earth and many strange sights have been witnessed. The accumulation of the snow and winter months is exposed to the naked eye of unfeeling neighbors and the only consolation is that all back yards look alike in the gladness spring tide. To mato cans that were once decorated with gorgeously colored labels look faded and anemias as the sun's rays disclose their empty mockery. Ashes to ashes and cinders mingle with cinders. A mound of vegetative remains, from kitchen sink with a dodo of soap suds, all add to the picturesqueness of the backyard landscape. Brie-a-brac and brick-bats, pickle bottles and clothes pins, tea spoons, and table forks, once more in view. Snow, like charity, covereth a multitude of sanitary sins.

A "Daffy Party"

The Daffy party arranged and given by the Chauvin Women Institute in the Oddfellow Hall last Friday evening proved a very happy social event. Many who went to this with a sense of trepidation, came away enthusiasts.

The proceedings were opened by a Grand "Daffy" March in which the ladies and gentlemen found partners by matching halves of pictures. The march was rendered very ridiculous by the placing of various obstacles in the way of the participants.

The dances were interspersed with very humorous and comical items, such as the Ladies race, run by four boys of the town. Guthrie, Murray, Quan and T. Keatley, whose costume from horse to chariot can only be described as "gorgeous". Many were the laughs the run provoked.

Former Black having come down from above attended the party accompanied by his imminable scarecrows, who had the courage of going and more vivacity than is ordinarily necessary to scare our black coated friends. It is whispered that Father Black had engaged the valuable services of Messrs the reeve D. W. Parcells, Secretary Saul, Batchelor

"Dear Departed"At Prosperity

Prosperity had a good time last Friday evening. The dramatic evening was highly successful, and considerable talent displayed by the various local thespians. The program provided for a number of songs, recitations and two short plays.

"The Dear Departed" was the piece de resistance of the program. It was a light dramatic comedy, in which Grandpa, the dear-departed, had recently died. The will had been read in due form, and the members of the family, Mr and Mrs Slater, daughter, sister and brother in law were having disputes over the division of the property, not without some display of avariciousness and false affection for the Dear Departed. Whilst so engrossed they are interrupted by the entirely unexpected arrival of the Dear Departed himself, whose death had not occurred. The dear departed stated his intention to marry again, and a new will would repeat the same when they were taking premature action.

The theme was well played by the actors and audience keeping enjoyed the various episodes of the plot. "Holding Down The Claim" was a burlesque which deservedly received a hearty applause from the house.

Two tobacooes were presented: one dominion of Australia, South Africa and Canada; the other "Camping Tonight" in which our soldiers and Red Cross nurses figured.

The recitations by Mrs Ferguson Clifford Harris were well received, as were the songs by Clifford and Fred Harris, Mr. L. Neil and Mrs C. Miller, the latter two being heartily endorsed.

The casts of the two plays were:

THE DEAR DEPARTED
Mrs Slater: Elsie Ferguson
Mr Slater: Teddie Spence
Daughter: Vera Ryall
Sister-in-law: Thelma Anderson
Brother-in-law: Harry Heffern
Grandfather: Roddie Ferguson

HOLDING DOWN THE CLAIM

The gross receipts of the evening were $68.00, of which about $48.00 is expected to be available for a gramophone for the school.

Hockey Boys Have Made Good And Deserve Support

The members of the Shamrock Hockey Club are about to bring the 1920-1921 season to a close. It is not amiss to briefly review their work since the opening of the season.

They started just a small bunch of enthusiasts, and all the time they have remained small in numbers. Often it was impossible to find a spare man for their match games. But few in numbers, they maintained their enthusiasm to the end—a victorious end at that. At the cost of considerable labor they make a rink for their use as near to the village as possible, but the gate moneys were hardly worth their collection, whilst but 17 membership tickets were sold to supporters. Quite a number of games have been played, as many as possible, and most of the others at Wainwright. Considerable improvement in play has been made during the course of the season, which culminated in a final victory over Unity, who had held the Dawson cup for three years straight.

In the matters of finance, we may mention that prior to playing Unity on this final occasion, the boys had spent some $400, which they had raised chiefly by means of whist drives and dances. Their final game and its honor, like many other honors was gained at a high price. It was a bold thing for Chauvin to challenge a team of such strength and name as that of Unity. The Unity and Chauvin ice were both out of commission and it was only possible to play at Wainwright. To do this Chauvin had to guarantee the expenses of Unity, win or lose. This they did. They paid and won. And THE WINNING PLACED CHAUVIN ON THE HOCKEY MAP OF THE WEST. Now they are out of pocket $100.

We are assured that everyone will help to make their whist drive and dance a financial success next Friday evening. It should be possible for everybody to at least buy a ticket, so that one or two of the boys do not have to dig up that amount.

It is but fair to the Hockey boys to state that the writer (editor) learned of these facts quite inadvertently. But he feels the public only need to know the facts of the case in order to see that the boys are not the losers by reason of their sportsmanship.

after the fear that some of his friends will jump all over him for daring to assert himself has proven groundless.

Good luck seems to stumble right on the hustler.

After paying the bills for his son's graduation, the "old man" would not write as optimistic a graduation ad-

Edinglassie

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs McCloy, Monday evening and had a very sociable time.

We are sorry to hear that Duncan McCloy slipped and sprained his ankle compelling him to go on crutches.

The Ribstone Creek is overflowing its banks and looks more like a river than anything else.

Rose Davison was out visiting to Edinglassie for a few days.

Mrs E. Davison and children, of Wainwright, are visiting at the home of her parents.

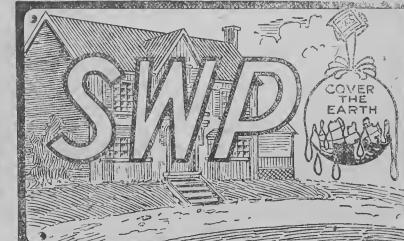

Coming from McCloy's social, Wits narrowly escaped having his leg severely crushed. Luckily escaping with many bruises.

It's peculiar how proud a man is of himself and how he puts himself on the back for having a little backbone.

WE DO NOT NEED THE EMBARGO
LIFTED: CHILLED MEAT TRADE IS MORE SOUND ECONOMICS

The question of the cattle embargo in Great Britain has been very freely discussed during the last few months.

Whether or not the Old Country decide to lift the embargo is a question of their own. It is their own business, and is decided by them as a business proposition. It is not, as some suppose, a question of doing a favor or otherwise to Canada.

Upon the same business standpoint Canada has a right to seek the lifting of the embargo. But she need to seek this concession?

We are convinced it is not to our interests to have this embargo lifted. That it is not to our best interest to ship live animals to Old Country for the beef trade. That it is fundamentally bad business economics. We believe, on the other hand, the best policy to pursue is that of developing a high grade chilled beef trade.

May we point out that all beefeves after an ocean voyage, have seriously deteriorated, and arrived as only fit for feeding. Thence their value has fallen. Their value is further decreased because pasture across there, though of the best, is barely sufficient to provide for the dairying business. Again, from the low prices obtainable for our beefeves over there must be deducted all the heavy freight, shipping and insurance charges, together with the cost of feeding on voyage. Thus ensuring with certainty the minimum price for the Canadian producer.

At home we are facing the question of raising beefeves, with a fair margin of profit for our investment and labor. And at the present time, the prospects of profit are not sufficient to raise any enthusiasm that one could notice. Across the water there are millions of consumers to purchase our beef, (not beefeves, as per embargo). There is a steady profitable business awaiting for Canada, if she will take care of it, regularly year by year, and supply a good standard beef well maintained in the point of quality. —Can these two needs be filled by one intelligent line of action?

We maintain they can.

The suggestion that we would offer is that our farmers cease from offering only a range animal to the market for the beef trade, and that in place of selling the animal straight from pasture they follow the practise of producing finished beef. This is however, but one step in the process. It next becomes necessary to establish proper plants for killing and chilling this beef, at say Winnipeg, and shipping direct for sale in the Old Country through the ordinary wholesale channels, preferably by a sales end of our packing organization.

In brief this means better money for superior beef, a control of our produce until it reaches the Old Country retailers, and the provision of a good beef at moderate price to the consumer.

There is an unfailing market in the Old Country for our chilled beef, just as there is, and has been for years, for the New Zealand and Australian mutton. This comes half way round the globe, through equatorial waters and arrives in a perfect condition. Our chilled beef would have a shorter and cooler haul.

Other arguments favoring a chilled beef trade are found in the lack of deterioration of the living animal, the reduced bill for ocean tonnage and generally decreased marketing costs. A bigger business in the hide and manufactures therefrom. And last, but not least a market at home for the well finished beef animal.

We are shouting up the wrong pipe when we call for raising the embargo.

The world belongs to the energetic

RURAL MUNICIPALITY OF
MANITO LAKE, No. 442Notice Re
Gopher Poisoning
1921

The Council of the Municipality are spending considerable money each year for poison for the destruction of money, they consider that it should be spent in such manner as to kill the most Gophers.

It is of no use for the council to get a supply of poison and have it used when the poisoners think they have time to put it out. This system is absolute waste of money, and as it is your money the council ask that the Gophers will be poisoned as soon in the spring as they start to come out, and that another dose could be set out about two weeks after the first with good effect.

If any quarters are poisoned by a ratpounder and those adjoining are not poisoned in reasonable time by the ones whom should poison them, the council ask that the location of the unpoisoned quarters be given to the councillor of the division in which they are in, these lands will then be liable to be entered upon and the poison laid and charged to the owner as company lands.

The poison for this year is now on hand and will be ready when the time comes to lay it out.

What Makes A Town

Hardly a week passes but some good citizen has a suggestion to make for the betterment of the town. No sooner is the suggestion made than some other good citizens object—principally because he does not like the first citizen. It is human nature, and we are just as human here as elsewhere. But there is a better way—a way that is quite human and more humanizing. Forget your antipathy toward the man and think only of his suggestion—of what it will mean to you as a citizen of the town. Very few good citizens think exactly alike. Many are diametrically opposite in their tastes, in their likes and dislikes. But there is a common ground upon which we may all meet and bury our animosities. That is the common good of all—the betterment of our community—the fostering of the welfare of our collective citizenry for the benefit of each individual citizen, and for the benefit of ourselves. It is the starting point of prosperity—the grave of adversity. It is the point we should seek and find.

Change In Game Laws

Open season for Hungarian partridge is to be extended to one month, instead of two weeks, as decided at the last meeting of the agricultural committee of the provincial legislature. It was also recommended that the lawful "bag" of these birds be increased from 25 to 50 birds. Also the reason for prairie chickens will be limited to two weeks south of the main line of the C.P.R. and northeastward the Vermilion constituency. In the north it will be one month.

It was pointed out that in some parts, the prairie chickens become so plentiful as to be really a nuisance to the farmers, while in others they are very scarce. Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture, stated that it would be necessary to very soon establish zones for game birds in this province.

In regard to the Hungarian partridge, it was pointed out that they multiply very rapidly, and that their flight is so fast that they can fairly well look after themselves. It required a very good shot to get them at any time. The average nest hatched 18 birds a year, so they were increasing rapidly and were travelling north. Some had been reported as far north as Lacome.

Lumber Prices Drop Thirty Per Cent Lately

During the past few weeks lumber prices have dropped about 30 per cent, and are now about two-thirds the price of a year ago. Several cuts in prices have taken place recently with the result that the most recent decrease has placed prices on a very low level when compared with prices last season.

Taking dimension as a basic price has come down about $16 a thousand and if the freight rates were again at the old figure it would come down still another $6, however this latter is not looked for at present. And without a lowering of freight rates it is believed lumber will now hit the bottom for some time to come. Prices of logs at the coast are down to about pre-war levels, but labor schedules and machinery, freight rates and supplies are all much higher than in the old days. Lumbermen figure that unless these also drop, lumber has now about reached the lowest figure and that it will be more liable to go up rather than take a further decline.

While the price has not gone down to the old levels, nevertheless from general information it would seem that lumber is still high as it will go this season. As a result of this drop there will be a greater movement to build.

There are several contemplated building this season and from the lumber companies comes the word that there are a great many making enquiries as the spring approaches so that by the time the weather opens up for construction we may find quite way for 1921.

Alberta Telephones

The Alberta telephones overextended their estimates last year to the extent of half a million dollars was the statement of Premier Stewart in the house when the estimates of the department, amounting to a total of $8,750,000.00 were discussed. The premier said that a slightly different system had been instituted this year to keep the expenditure within the bounds of the present estimates. In answer to questions he said that it was necessary to raise the rates of rural phones, but this would not be done this year. The toll charges, however, will be revised. The system, he said was earning about eight per cent, and should be earning at least sixteen per cent.

The newspaper today is the cheapest article that any man can buy, does not cover the first cost of the white paper upon which it is printed. That is not a healthy condition of affairs. It tends to limit the number of newspapers and consequently the expression of different shades of opinions that cost for something in public affairs. It must lead to the concentration in fewer hands of the most powerful force in State organization.

The government deficit on railways for the past year was $50,000,000. Expenses will have to be cut down for the freight and passenger rates will not bear more raising.

It is estimated that nine thousand five hundred acres of forest are being cut down every day of the year to supply paper for manufacture.

Life would not be so complicated if there were not so many self-appointed leaders who don't know where they are going.

Admiral Tirpitz declares that the war was won by the British high seas fleet, thus disposing of his friend Scheer's claim that the battle of Jutland was a German victory.

The case of a man's heart ceasing to beat for fourteen hours and then resuming work is reported from Berne Switzerland, where a pastor of that city, after being officially declared dead, suddenly awoke.

Most of the things a woman does because she has no reason for doing them turn out better than the things a man does because he has several reasons for doing them.

A tractor at Harbor Springs took the bit in its teeth, so to speak, and ran away. Perhaps the chaff farmer permitted the lines to get under the tail light.

be termed bachelor girls.

stick it into other people's business.
